Saturday, October 21:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Event</th>
<th>Location</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>9.00 – 9:55</td>
<td>Registration and Coffee: Clement House (CLM) Lobby</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10:00 – 11:15</td>
<td>Welcome and Opening Addresses: Kimberly Hutchings (Queen Mary University)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>11:15 – 11:30</td>
<td>Coffee break/Transition</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>11:30 – 13:00</td>
<td>Panel Section I</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Temporal rationales of an interdependent world

- Chair: Mary Shirae
- Discussant: Nora Fisher Onar
- Paul van Trigt: 'Did Utopia fall in 1989? Human rights and the politics of time in the United Nations’ Observances dedicated to ‘vulnerable groups’
- Ravi Dutt Bajpai: 'De-Civilising Time and Civilising States: Contemporary China-India Relations'
- Athanasios Gkoutzioulis: 'Identifying Time as Chronos or Kairos: Implications for the Study of Terrorism'
- Francine Rossone de Paula: 'Emerging and Falling Brazil: on what is allowed as repetition and change in the world'
- Chair: Mary Shirae
- Discussant: Nora Fisher Onar
- Maia Holtermann Entwistle: ‘Sensing States: Empire, Epistemology and International Relations’
- Maja Spanu: ‘Hierarchies After Empire : Self-Determination and the Constitution of Inequality’
- Joseph Leigh: ‘Periodizing Postwar Modernity: Empire and Orientalism in Cold War Grand Strategy’
- Ayse Zarakol: ‘A Post-Mongolian International System?’
- Benjamin de Carvalho, Halvard Leira, Julia Costa Lopez, Xavier Guillaume: ‘The Politics of Periodization: Temporal Othering in International Politics’

Legacies of Empire in World Politics: Historical and Theoretical Perspectives

- Chair: George Lawson
- Discussant: Meera Sabaratnam
- Maia Holtermann Entwistle: ‘Sensing States: Empire, Epistemology and International Relations’
- Jillian Terry: ‘Under His Eye: Reading Real-Time and Constant Surveillance through a Feminist Lens’
- Benjamin Herboth: ‘Time’s up: The Ticking Bomb Scenario and the Normalisation of Emergency Time’
- Nathanael Chouraqui: ‘Vacuous Future, Anxious Citizens: International Terrorism in an Age of Risk’
- Sarah Earnshaw: ‘Failure as Imminent Danger: The Temporality of Threat in War for Life’

The politics of risk, imminent danger, and exceptional surveillance

- Chair: Mark Salter
- Discussant: Debbie Lisle
- Elke Schwarz: ‘Not thinking in dark times: Informational technology and the anti-politics of endless reaction’
- John Emery: ‘Accelerated Techno-Warfare and its Impact on the Ethics of War’
- Timothy Stevens: ‘Exeunt Omnes? Survival, extinction and the temporal visions of John H. Herz.’
- Andrew Hom: ‘Clockwork security: International standards and global timing practices’

A Bulwark Against Chaos: Temporizing Security and Securitizing Time

- Chair: Christopher McIntosh
- Discussant: Myriam Fotou
- Elke Schwarz: ‘Not thinking in dark times: Informational technology and the anti-politics of endless reaction’
- Clive Gabay: ‘Decolonising interwar anti-colonial solidarities: The case of Harry Thuku’
- Alina Sajed: ‘How we fight: anti-colonial imaginaries and the question of national consciousness in the Algerian War’
- Sara Salem: ‘Reading Gramsci in Egypt: Hegemony and an alternative periodisation of modern Egyptian history’

Revisiting the temporal in historical narratives of anticolonialism in Africa and the Middle East

- Chair: Lisa Tilley
- Discussant: Olivia Umurerwa-Rutazibwa
- Clive Gabay: ‘Decolonising interwar anti-colonial solidarities: The case of Harry Thuku’
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time and space</th>
<th>Thinking within and beyond the Anthropocene</th>
<th>The past and present of racialized politics</th>
<th>Temporalities of Hierarchy</th>
<th>Reordering the Self: Locating Identities In and Through Time</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Chair: Alireza Shams-Lahjani Discussant: TBC</td>
<td>Chair: Adrian Rogstad Discussant: TBC</td>
<td>Chair: Isaac Kamola Discussant: George Lawson</td>
<td>Chair: George Lawson</td>
<td>Chair and Discussant: Christopher McIntosh</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

13:00 – 14:00
Lunch and Publishers’ Gallery

14:00 – 15:30
Semi-plenary Roundtables

How do historians think about time?
Richard Drayton, Imaobong Umoren, Sujit Sivasundaram, Vanessa Ogle, George Lawson

Decolonial Speculations and IR: Defatalizing IR Knowledges for a World Otherwise
Anna M. Agathangelou, Kyle Killian, Giorgio Shani, Wanda Nanibush, Siba Grovogui, Faye Fraser, Mustapha Kamal Pasha

15:30 – 15:45
Coffee break/Transition

15:45 – 17:15
Panel Section II

Time and space

Chair and Discussant: Christopher McIntosh

Ty Solomon: ‘Rhythm, Identity, and Ontological Security’
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>17:15 – 17:30</th>
<th>Coffee break/Transition</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 17:30 – 19:00   | Keynote: Hong Kong Theatre, CLM
Dipesh Chakrabarty (University of Chicago) |
| 19:00 – 21:00   | Conference Reception: Millennium is pleased to offer delegates an inclusive conference reception with wine, non-alcoholic beverages and canapés |
| Sunday, 22 October: | |
| 10:00 – 11:30   | Opening Roundtable: Thinking about the Past, Hong Kong Theatre (CLM)
Julian Go, Vanessa Ogle, Zine Magubane, P.J. Brendese
Chair: Kimberly Hutchings |
| 11:30 – 11:45   | Coffee break/Transition |
| 11:45 – 13:15   | Panel Section III |

| Ricardo Barbosa Junior, Matheus Hoffmann Pfrimer: 'Temporal resistances to neo-agro-colonialism: saving, storing and sharing seeds'
Joanne Yao: 'Time is a River': Geography and Temporality in International Relations'
Delacey Tedesco: 'From transition narratives to politicized temporalities: New material metaphors for an uncertain urban world'
Cathy Elliot: 'H is for Heterotopia: Temporalities of the "new nature writing"'
Harshavardhan Bhat: 'In an Air of Complicity'
Scott Hamilton: 'Foucault's End of History: The Anthropocene and the Re-Governmentalization of the Cosmos'
Melody Fonseca and Ari Jerrem: 'Developing Happiness: the path from a "futureless past" to "white time"'
Vineet Thakur and Alexander E. Davis: 'Racial Hierarchies across Time: A Postcolonial Genealogy of the Mandates system'
Oliver Kessler: 'Micro-waving finance: on Acceleration, Hierarchies and order' knowledge production’
Kathryn Marie Fisher: ‘Borders, Bordering, and Insecurity’
Karl Gutafsson: ‘Desecuritising the past: Temporal othering, apologies and Japanese defence policy change’
Andrew Hom: ‘Silent liberal order: the temporal identity of critical IR’  |  |

| The politics of permanence, salvation, and decay
Chair: Mia Certo
Discussant: Oliver Kessler
Pauline Heinrichs: 'The Politics of | Uses of the Past in World Politics
Chair: Maj Grasten
Discussant: Lisa Stampnitzky
Indigenous and Settler Temporalities
Chair: Scott Hamilton
Discussant: Nivi Manchanda
Provincializing Eurocentric Time
Chair: Massarah Dawood
Discussant: Lisa Tilley
Theorising Time and Temporality
Chair: Alvina Hoffmann
Discussant: Rahul Rao |  |
| 13:15 – 14:15 | Lunch/Publishers’ Gallery |
| 14:15 – 15:45 | Panel Section IV |

Iver B. Neumann: 'Halting Time: Monuments to Alterity'

Tom Lundborg: 'Time and the state system: Repetition, progress, decay'

Eszter Salgò: 'Mythical Time in International Politics: Interpretive Approaches to the Study of the European Union’s Politics of Transcendence'

4th Paper TBC

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Repetition - Incredibly Powerful or Powerfully Incredible?</th>
<th>Sabrina Villenave: 'Disappearances in Brazilian indigenous communities: when space connects past and present.'</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Christopher Daase and Tobias Wille: 'The usable past: How precedents shape international politics'</td>
<td>Nevzat Soguk: 'Dissonant International Temporalities in Migration, Indigeneity and Religiosity'</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>David Hughes: 'The Baberowski Affair: Historical Falsification in an Age of Imperialism'</td>
<td>Ramon Blanco and Ana Carolina Delgado: 'Ruling the Other: Time as an Instrument of Power and Violence in International Politics'</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Morgan Rees: 'Narratives in Time: How the Road to Libya Ran through Rwanda'</td>
<td>Mark B. Salter: 'Canadian Polar Sovereignty: From time immemorial to the coming ecocide'</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Malte Hergaden: 'Representing Srebrenica in Kosovo – History and the Politics of Memory in German Foreign Policy'</td>
<td>Ananya Sharma: 'Tactical Fabulations, Sublime Spaces and Post Imperial Emancipation: Towards an Epistemic Futurity of International Relations'</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Farai Chipato: ''Cranking up the Time Machine'': The Hybrid Peace and its temporal assumptions.'</td>
<td>Mustapha Kamal Pasha: 'The Time(s) of Religion: Islam and International Relations'</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Sheharyar Imran: 'Reordering Spatiotemporal Imaginations of the Arab World'</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Isaac Kamola: 'From Critical to Decolonial IR Theory: Situating an American Social Science within the World of Higher Education'</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Nawal Mustapha: 'Coercion and Capital at the Height of Empire: the Historic Emergence of Revolutionary Repertoires in an Age of Colonial Governmentality'</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Christopher Wheeler: 'How does the IR crystal ball work?: Exploring why prediction is a challenge in IR'</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Liane Hartnett: 'Time and Tolstoian Internationalism'</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>David Rubin: 'In Search of Lost Timelessness: Realism, Human Rights and the Forgotten Temporality of Theory'</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Paulo Chamon: 'On a temporal (re)turn in IR: first time as tragedy; second time as farce?'</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| Temporalities of Resistance | Chair: Alexander E. Davis
Discussant: Julian Go
Myriam Fotou: 'Politics of time and space in the case of Elliniko: sanctuary, solidarity, real estate'
Carolina Moulin & Bruno Magalhães: 'Waiting for tomorrow: temporal modulations of Venezuelan migration to Brazil'
Ashutosh Singh: 'Waiting, Memory and Resistance: The Interplay of Time in International Politics'
Emma Kast: 'Totality and Resistance: The Logic and Histories of Capital' |
|---|---|
| Synchronising the World | Chair: Maja Spanu
Discussant: TBC
Marc Sinan Winrow: 'Synchronising Ottoman sovereignty: Ottoman practices of recognition and the international norm of sovereignty up to the nineteenth century'
Geoff Gordon: 'Market measures: Time technologies in global governance'
Einar Wigen: 'Synchronising the World: Temporality and International Order'
4th Paper TBC |
| After War | Chair: Benjamin Martill
Discussant: Andy Hom
Emerson Maione: 'Transitional Justice Temporalities: How its Mechanisms Construct Societies in need of Transition'
Lou Armour, Victoria Basham, Sarah Bulmer & David Jackson: 'War as a Minefield, War as a Continuum: Temporalities of Experience and Unboundedness of War'
Garikoitz Gómez Alfaro: 'More-than-human afterlives of violence. Some thoughts from an Irish town'
Patrick Pinkerton: 'Deferring conflict: The temporality of post-conflict societies' |
| The Politics of Time in International Law: Between Past and Future | Chair: Oliver Kessler
Discussant: Matthew Craven
Geoff Gordon: 'A Political Economy of Standardized Time in Academic Knowledge Production for International Law and Politics'
Benjamin Wilhelm: 'International financial law, financial practice and the politics of time in-between'
Felipe dos Reis, Maj Lervad Grasten: 'On the Futures Past of Law: Interventions, Kosovo and Competing Temporalities'
Bernard Keenan: 'The Chronopoetics of Legal Technique'
Branwen Gruffydd Jones: 'Anticolonial Time Against the Temporality of Colonialism' |
| Philosophies of Time | Chair: Aaron McKeil
Discussant: Tom Lundborg
Yicong He: 'Reading Rawls and Derrida: The Problem of History and a Global Justice-to-Come'
David Williams: 'Colonialism in Liberal Times'
Elia R.G. Pusterla: 'The (non-)Place of Time in International Relations at the Time of Post-Truth Politics'
Matheus Lock: 'Between Chronos and Aion: the temporality of radical political events'
Kamila Pieczara: 'Biblical Time: International Relations According to the Bible' |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Event</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>15:45 – 16:00</td>
<td>Coffee break/Transition</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>16:00 – 17:30</td>
<td>Closing Roundtable: Thinking about Futurity</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Claudia Aradau, Jenny Andersson, Duncan Bell, Rahul Rao</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Chair: Robbie Shiliam</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>17:30 – 17:35</td>
<td>Closing Comment: Editors, Millennium Vol. 46</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>